ADVISORY

TO : ALL PROVINCIAL GOVERNORS, HUC/CITY/MUNICIPAL MAYORS, AND OTHERS CONCERNED

SUBJECT : PARTICIPATION IN THE STRATEGIC LEADERSHIP FOR GENDER-RESPONSIVE LOCAL GOVERNANCE: A TRAINING FOR NEW WOMEN LOCAL CHIEF EXECUTIVES

DATE : SEP 30 2025

The Philippine Commission on Women, in partnership with the UN Women Philippines, will conduct the Strategic Leadership for Gender-Responsive Local Governance: A Training for New Women Local Chief Executives on October 24, 2025 at the Diamond Hotel, Manila.

The training seeks to deepen the leadership awareness and provide public service orientation to foster critical reflection on their pivotal roles as changemakers toward advancing inclusive, accountable, and gender-responsive local governance. This will serve as a powerful platform to convene first term female Local Chief Executives to develop strategic, inclusive and transformative leadership approach and capacitate them with knowledge, tools, decision-making processes and effective policy implementation and monitoring of Gender and Development principles in local government operations and international frameworks, including the Magna Carta of Women, the Sustainable Development Goals, and relevant electoral and administrative mandates and support mechanisms toward institutionalizing a gender-responsive governance.

Relative thereto, all newly elected female LCEs are invited and highly encouraged to actively participate in the said training and confirm their participation through the registration link: <https://tinyurl.com/LCETraining2025>

All DILG Regional Directors are hereby directed to cause the widest dissemination of this Advisory to all LGUs within their areas of jurisdiction.

For further inquiries and clarifications, you may coordinate with Mr. Kim Harold T. Peji, Supervising GAD Specialist, at khtpeji@pcw.gov.ph , and Mr. Ariel D. Rivera, Senior GAD Specialist of the Technical Services and Regional Coordination Division (TSRCD), at adrivera@pcw.gov.ph. They can also be reached at (02) 8735-1654 local 138 or 139.

For information.
